

On June 29 2017, took place the enlarged meeting of the Collegium of the Central State Archives and Museum of Literature and Arts of Ukraine and considered the issue «On Approval of the Plan for the Development of the Archive-Museums Complex «Literary and Artistic Plyuty». The Meeting was attended by representatives of the public, journalists, tour agencies managers, tour guides, museum staff, in particular, One Street Museum, A. Solovyanenko Museum, and Kyiv Regional Archaeological Museum of Trypillia village.

The head of the Department of the archive-museum complex «Literary and Artistic Plyuty» S. Rudenko spoke on the historical past of the complex and current up-to-date problems. Director of the Central State Archives and Museum of Literature and Arts of Ukraine O. Chizhova outlined the core perspectives for the development of the department.

The discussion was attended by Director of the Ukrainian Research Institute of Archival Affairs and Records Keeping O. Haranin; landscape architect, President of Kyiv Landscape Club, member of the National Union of Architects of Ukraine O. Dznun; Head of the archaeological-excursion department of Kyiv Regional Archaeological Museum of Trypillia village N. Fedorchenko; journalist, reporter of the Ukrainian radio «Kultura» L. Tatarinova; Director of One Street Museum D. Shlonsky; President of the International Fund «Oberih»; head of the private travel company H. Zakypna; tour guide, representative of Kyiv Tour Guides League N. Morenkova; tour guide of A. Solovyanenko Museum Ye. Oliynyk; representative of the International Charity Centre «Tvorchist» O. Radchenko and conductor of the Kyiv Chamber Orchestra «Ukrainska Spadschyna» O. Andreev.